Group Reviews

Don focused members on their own accountability for controlling themselves, rather than controlling others. He could ask participants more questions to draw them into a "dialogue" instead of straight explanation.

Great!

Useful, transferable, and immediately applicable.

Great presentation! He was very enlightening and made me realize that I don't listen to my employees enough.

Excellent presentation and very important topic . I would like to hear more.

Excellent. I would like to hear every topic Don speaks on. My notes won't be adequate.

Great job. Lots of valuable information presented in an "I got it" way. I would have liked more time for questions.
