Group Reviews

Don's strength was his different look at how to deal with employees for a positive result. His talk was a bit different each meeting. It always seemed "fresh."

Don was excellent. On both a personal and professional level, I think this talk and the timing of it in my life, was probably the most valuable I have heard.

He was excellent. All had application to each of us, business and personal. He had great take-away material.

Don had great take-away value and a great application tool.

He was very clear and a heartfelt speaker. However, we should give him more time.
