

A FEW LESSONS LEARNED...

I've learned...

The best classroom in the world is the journey you are on.

I've learned...

You can't own Love. You can only bless it while it visits you.

I've learned...

We all like to play with fire. We just don't want to get burned.

I've learned...

Nothing feels better than knowing you make a difference.

I've learned...

The truth does not emerge from opinions. Only from a dialogue.

I've learned...

Not to listen to all the "noise" about how you are to live your life. The quality of your life is your choice...and your responsibility.

I've learned...

Don't assume. Anything.

I've learned...

The less I control, the more I can do.

I've learned...

It's a trap to focus on what we want- when we have already been given so much.

I've learned...

Opposites attract so we can learn our emotional lessons.

I've learned...

Lessons are repeated until learned.

I've learned...

We all need drama. Just don't bring it into your life in destructive ways.

I've learned...

The goal of the hero is to let others be their own hero.

I've learned...

We can avoid getting sucked into emotional traps by staying off stage.

I've learned...

We should be glad we don't get everything we ask for.

I've learned...

Money doesn't buy class. It just makes us more of who we already are.

I've learned...

That life happens in the moment, not today or yesterday.

I've learned...

That you can never be a good enough child or good enough parent.

I've learned...

There's nothing sweeter than sleeping with your baby and feeling their breath on your face.

I've learned...

No one needs to be perfect until you decide to fall in love with them.

I've learned...

That life wasn't designed to be "fair". It was designed to be a learning lesson.

I've learned...

The judgment we place on ourselves is as destructive as the judgment we place on others.

I've learned...

That when one harbor's bitterness, happiness will dock elsewhere.

I've learned...

You always wish you could have told that special person one more time that you loved them.

I've learned...

I can't always choose what happens to me, but I can choose what I do about it.

I've learned...

It's not what you get, it's who you become that counts.

I've learned...

It is best to give advice in only two circumstances: when requested and in an emergency.

I've learned...

We are all miracles waiting to be loved.

I've learned...

That the less time I have to work with, the more things I want to get done. So I best be going...

All the best,

Don
