

Spiritual Wisdom

I have gathered these words of wisdom over many years. All are “spiritual” to me and I re-read them regularly. I will continue to add to the list as time permits. Feel free to share with all. Check off the boxes that resonate with you and then add your own. May you enjoy!

- “Hope for 100 years of life doing your duty.” Upanishads (Ancient Hindu)
- “Be a lamp to yourself, be your own confidence. Hold to the truth within yourself, as to the only truth.” Buddha
- “In the archer there is a resemblance to the mature person. When he misses the bull’s-eye, he turns and seeks the reason for his failure in himself.” Confucius
- “He who realize the Tao in the morning can die content in the evening.” Confucius
- “In dealing with people, we already have the perfect model behavior inside us. Just act sincerely, in accordance with your true nature. Don’t do to others what you wouldn’t want done to you.” Tzu-ssu (Grandson of Confucius)
- “When we act with sincerity, everything we do is right.” Tzu-ssu
- “The sage embraces things. Ordinary men discriminate amongst them and parade their discriminations before others. So I say, those who discriminate, fail to see.” Chuang-tzu (Taoist Master)
- “Creating without possessing, acting without exploring, guiding without interfering.” Lao-tzu (Father of Taoism and regarded as the author of the Tao Te Ching)
- “I have just three things to teach: simplicity, patience, compassion. These three are your greatest treasures. Simple in actions and in thoughts, you return to the source of being. Patient with both friends and enemies, you accord with the way things are. Compassionate toward yourself, you reconcile all being in the world.” Lao-tzu
- “This is called embodying the light.” Lao-tzu
- “The truth waits for eyes unclouded by longing.” Tao Te Ching
- “And when two people understand each other in their inmost hearts, their words are sweet and strong, like the fragrance of orchids.” I Ching (Oldest of the classic Chinese texts)
- “If you want to realize the truth, don’t be for or against. The struggle between good and evil is the primal disease of the mind.” Seng Ts’an (Zen Master, 6th Century)
- “Don’t keep searching for the truth; just let go of your opinions.” Seng Ts’an
- “We sit together, the mountain and me, until only the mountain remains.” Li Po (Chinese Poet, 7th Century)
- “All things change when we do.” Kukai (Japanese Monk, 8th Century)
- “The Great Way has no gate; there are a thousand paths to it.” Wu-Men (Japanese Zen Master)
- “Humility collects the soul into a single point by the power of silence. A truly humble man has no desire to be known or admired by others.” Isaac of Nineveh (Syrian Monk)
- “What is the mind for if not to find God?” Buddha
- “Winning and losing are the same thing. Both are nothing.” Buddha

- ❑ “I am here to serve no one else but myself. To form my own self-realization through the service of others.” Gandhi
- ❑ “The fragrance always remains on the hand that gives the rose.” Gandhi
- ❑ “If you want to know me, look inside your heart.” The Tao
- ❑ “Whoever knows himself knows God.” Muhammad
- ❑ “In those who have cured themselves of selfishness, I shine with brilliance.” The Bhagavad Gita
- ❑ “The man of contemplation walks alone. He lives desireless amidst the objects of desire.” Shankara (Indian Yogi)
- ❑ “After enlightenment you are the same as you were before, there is no mind and there is no truth, you are simply free from unreality and delusion.” The Karma Sutra
- ❑ “The uncreated, self-radiant wisdom of your original mind, actionless, immaculate, transcendent over acceptance and rejection, is itself the perfect practice.” Padmasambhava (Indian Monk)
- ❑ “The path of love and the path of insight lead into the same garden.” Stephen Mitchell (Translator and Poet)
- ❑ “The master makes everything seem easy; but she has put an immense effort into achieving this effortlessness.” Stephen Mitchell
- ❑ “When we fully surrender our ego-bound past and future, there is nothing but the present, nothing but presents.” Stephen Mitchell
- ❑ “A light shines through us upon things and makes us aware that we are nothing but the light is all.” Emerson (American Poet)
- ❑ “This thing we tell of can never be found by seeking, yet only seekers find it.” Abu Yazidal-Bistami (Sufi Master)
- ❑ “If men wish to draw near to God, they must seek him in the hearts of men. They should speak well of all men, whether present or absent, and if they themselves seek to be a light to guide others, then, like the sun, they must show the same face to all.” Abu Said Ibn Ibil-Khayr (Sufi Master)
- ❑ “He who trusts in God is able to remove his attention from worldly anxieties and devote it entirely to doing what is right.” Bakhya Ibn Pakuda (Spanish Rabbi)
- ❑ “Gradually you purify yourself, eliminating mistaken knowledge and attitudes you have held from the past.” Wu-Men (Chinese Zen Master)
- ❑ “If you can’t find the truth right where you are, where else do you think you will find it?” Dogen (Japanese Zen Master)
- ❑ “Life is short, and no one knows what the next moment will bring. Cultivate your mind while you still have the opportunity. You will soon discover the treasure of wisdom, which in turn you can share abundantly with others, bringing them happiness and peace.” Dogen
- ❑ “To study the Way is to study the Self.
To study the Self is to forget the Self.
To forget the Self is to be enlightened by all things.
To be enlightened by all things is to remove the barrier between Self and Other.” Dogen
- ❑ “Asking is half of knowing.” Rumi (Sufi Poet)
- ❑ “Out beyond ideas of wrongdoing and rightdoing, there is a field. I’ll meet you there.” Rumi
- ❑ “Why should I seek? I am the same as He. His essence speaks through me. I have been looking for myself!” Rumi
- ❑ “As we grow clear and open, the more complete the joy of heaven is.” Dante

 Spreads through all the worlds.
 It bears the flower and fruit of Compassion
 And its name is service of others.” Sahara
- ❑ Prayer of Saint Francis
 Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace;
 where there is hatred, let me sow love;
 where there is injury, pardon;
 where there is doubt, faith;
 where there is despair, hope;
 where there is darkness, light;
 and where there is sadness, joy.

 O Divine Master,
 grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
 to be understood, as to understand;
 to be loved, as to love;
 for it is in giving that we receive,
 it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
 and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.
 Amen.
- ❑ Deep Peace (An Old Gaelic Prayer)
 Deep peace, pure gold of the sun to you.
 Deep peace, pure white of the moon to you.
 Deep peace, pure blue of the sky to you.
 Deep peace, pure green of the grass to you.
 Deep peace, pure brown of the earth to you.
 Deep peace, pure gray of the dew to you.

Deep peace, of the running wave to you.
Deep peace, of the whispering trees to you.
Deep peace, of the flowing air to you.
Deep peace, of the quiet earth to you.
Deep peace of the gentle night to you.
Deep peace, of the shining stars to you.
Moon and stars pour their healing light on you.
Deep peace, of the Son of Peace to you.
Deep peace of Christ, the light of the world to you.
Deep peace of Christ to you.

- ❑ “Far beyond where winds have blown,
Waking into realms unknown,
Footsteps free of space and time,
Silent thunder, holding mine,
In the heart a song of peace and mercy,
Calling me back home.

Swing low,
Sweet chariot,
Coming for to carry me home.” (Old Gospel Song)

- ❑ Remember; spend some time with your loved ones, because they are not going to be around forever.

Remember, say a kind word to someone who looks up to you in awe, because that little person soon will grow up and leave your side.

Remember, to give a warm hug to the one next to you, because that is the only treasure you can give with your heart and it doesn't cost a cent.

Remember, to say, "I love you" to your partner and your loved ones, but most of all mean it. A kiss and an embrace will mend hurt when it comes from deep inside of you.

Remember to hold hands and cherish the moment for someday that person will not be there again.

Give time to love, give time to speak! And give time to share the precious thoughts in your mind.

AND ALWAYS REMEMBER:

Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away.

(George Carlin)
